Procedure

If a case is to be submitted to an arbitration tribunal (for court arbitration), it is necessary for there to be an arbitration clause on record. To accomplish that you can:

Draw up a separate contract

Incorporate an arbitration clause in the existing contract

Make a statement using an over-the-distance communication device in a recordable form

Suit

The arbitration clause:

- Cause of dispute
- An indication of the legal relationship between parties and the legal basis for current or potential future dispute

Remember that the following:

- Number of arbitrators;
- Qualifications;
- Course of conduct;
- Location of arbitration;
- Language of the proceedings

Are regulated by IGBiNT regulations, and disparate conduct requires advanced knowledge

Note!

Response to suit

The court can respond based on its own applicability to a given case. If it deems itself inapplicable, it can raise this objection as one against court arbitration

Verdict

The verdict is to be in writing and signed by the arbitrators. In it a verdict should contain:

- The invocation of the arbitration clause with the inclusion of the parties involved, the delineation of the parties and arbiters and the motives being invoked
- Date and place of resolution

In limited cases, the court can dismiss a case:

- When the plaintiff does not bring a case in accordance with art. 1188 of the Polish Civil Code and when the parties had reached a settlement with each other before appearing before the arbitration tribunal z art. 1196 KPC
